About Community Food Share

At Community Food Share, we're more than a food bank — we're a neighbor and a friend who's been part of the fabric of Boulder and Broomfield Counties for decades.

We know that ending hunger in our communities requires collaboration. That's why we not only provide food directly to families, seniors, students, and others, we're also a hub — delivering more than 10 million pounds of food each year to local partners to reach people in their communities. Because when we work together, we give more people access to fresh, nutritious food.

Ongoing Ways to Support Community Food Share

Please consider becoming a member of the Baker's Dozen Club, a hassle-free way to provide a monthly, quarterly, or annual gift to Community Food Share. These scheduled gifts allow you to budget your donations and allow us to budget for the monthly purchase of fresh produce, dairy, proteins, and other food items.

Community-led, community-fed for 40 years
