

COMMUNITY CLASSIC

TEE UP! AGAINST HUNGER

Thursday, June 13, 2023 at Lake Valley Golf Club

Community Food Share has been fighting hunger in Boulder and Broomfield Counties for more than 40 years.

Join us for the 35th annual Tee Up! Against Hunger Community Classic, founded by longtime supporter, Chuck Bellock. The tournament has raised enough funds to provide more than 7 million meals into our community.

Hosted at Lake Valley Golf Club, there will be a great variety of holes and spectacular views of Colorado's Flatirons and foothills. Known for its outstanding, old style "push-up" greens, natural feel and abundant wildlife – as much as having hosted the 2016 USGA Senior Open Qualifying and numerous other Championships – the course can be enjoyed by players of all abilities.

Ending hunger in our community requires collaboration. That's why we not only provide food directly to families, seniors, students, and others, we're also a hub — delivering millions of pounds of food a year to local partners to reach people in their communities.

By joining us and working together, we can give more people access to fresh, nutritious food throughout Boulder and Broomfield Counties.
